Report of the President for 1944

The Audubon Association of the Pacific has had a good year. Every scheduled meeting and field trip has been held on the announced date. The attendance has been consistently good.

The membership has supported all events and has shown by its presence that they are receiving their desired type of program.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Ethel E. Richardson, Superintendent of Juniors and Miss Clelia A. Paroni, Editor of "The Gull" a series of field trips primarily for Juniors was held.

Announced leaders for our field trips have added to the enjoyment of those attending.

The thanks of the Association are due to the Editor of "The Gull", the leaders of the field trips, those participating in our two census trips, the members of the committees, and the Board of Directors for their help during the year.

Respectfully submitted,
Arthur H. Myer, President

January Field Trip

Was taken on Sunday the 14th on the Campus of the University of California in Berkeley and up through Strawberry Canyon to the Botanical Gardens. Although the day was fairly warm with a bright sun, the birds were not present in any great numbers and some of the commoner species were entirely absent.

Our party was divided into three groups, Mrs. Kelly leading one group up one side of Strawberry Canyon and Bert Harwell leading his group up the other side to the Botanical Gardens. The writer with a small group covered the Campus. No unusual observations were made by any group.

For many years Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Myer have graciously entertained our group after the field trip, and this year was no exception. Their hospitality, delicious coffee and cakes always furnish a happy climax to a pleasant day. Our visit this year was especially pleasant for several reasons. We had the pleasure of greeting our honorary president for 1945, Mrs. Joseph Grinnell, who made a brief talk. We renewed acquaintances with several of our members whose membership in our Association dates back many years. Others were present who had been members in previous years. The number of boys present and their interest in learning to know the birds was most encouraging.

Our own inimitable Bert Harwell was master of ceremonies during our visit.

Thirty-five species of birds were noted for the total area covered:

Red-tailed Hawk, Sparrow Hawk, Anna Hummingbird, Red-shafted Flicker, California Woodpecker, Black Phoebe, Steller's Jay, California Jay, Plain Titmouse, Coast Bush-tit, Red-breasted Nuthatch, Wren-tit, Western Robin, Varied Thrush, Hermit Thrush, Golden-crowned Kinglet, Ruby-crowned Kinglet, Cedar Waxwing, California Shrike, Hutton Vireo, Myrtle Warbler, Audubon Warbler, Townsend Warbler, English Sparrow, California Purple Finch, California Linnet, Northern Pine Siskin, Green-backed Goldfinch, Spotted Towhee, Brown Towhee, Oregon Junco, Nuttall Sparrow, Golden-crowned Sparrow, Fox Sparrow, Song Sparrow.

Attending the trip: Members—Mr. and Mrs. Kilham, Myer; Mesdames Anabel, Austin, Grinnell, Kelly, Zinke; Misses Blake, Cohen, Fay, Goen, Jamieson, MacIver, Papina, Paroni, Rinehart, Roscoe, Stanton; Messrs. Baukol, Berger, Bryant, Harwell, J. Heyneman, Kwasky, Leffler, McGuckin, Martensen, Mote.

As visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Stearns of the Toledo, Ohio Audubon Society; and Mr. and Mrs. William D. Landels of the San Jose Ornithological Club; also Mrs. Mote, Mrs. B. T. Rocca, Mrs. E. C. Stowell; and Misses Cassidy, Ayer, Violet B. Richardson, Jean Myer, Barbara Myer, Camilla Paroni; and Scouts Jim Carson, Marvin Cohn, Kenneth Hurbert, Robert Horn, Lynn Chapman, Bernard Sinton, and Jerome Friedman. 31 members and 21 guests.
